

NOVEMBER @ the library . . .

Huntington Woods

Collective Calamity of Laura Reed & Lindy Marshew-Shewbridge

Woods Gallery
Artists' Reception
Thursday, November 7th 6 - 8pm
Brief Artists' Talk 7 pm.

This two-person exhibit features the oil paintings of these 2 Detroit artists. Lindy's 2-d and 3-d abstract paintings use undulating, foliage-like patterns as a springboard. Included in Laura Reed's works will be her ongoing "Rhonda" series, a painted homage depicting Rhonda's strong personality and strength of attitude in navigating street life.

Creative Art Series - Shadow Box Art w/ Susan Fox

Saturday, November 9th
1 - 4 pm Knox Room

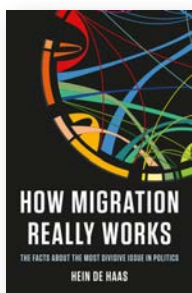

Create a shadow box which might be a memory box, or a gift you may want to give to a member of your family or to use as a discussion piece over the Thanksgiving holiday.

Registration is required.

Vital Voices Book Club

Tuesday, November 12th
11am - 12:15pm Friends Room

This is our last month reading about Immigrants; our November title is How Migration Really Works: The facts about the most divisive issue in politics, by Hein de Haas.

2000s Murder Mystery Game

Wednesday, November 13th
6 - 8:30pm
Knox Room

Find out who killed Chase Prewitt, Class President in this early 2000s themed murder mystery game. Bring your friends and enjoy a fun night of role playing and truth or dare as you solve the mystery. Pizza will be provided. For tweens/teens. Registration is required.

Power of Parents

Wednesday, November 13th
6:30 - 8:00pm Woods Gallery

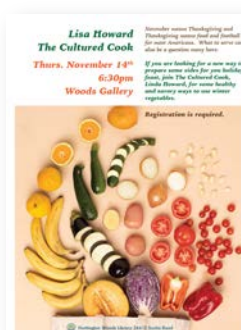

How can parents talk with their teens about underage drinking, including alcohol myths, refusal skills, and the consequences of underage consumption, such as drunk driving. This program, by Mothers Against Drunk Driving, is informative and evidence-based.

Parents have much more influence over their adolescent's drinking decisions than they realize and the Power of Parents is designed to inform them of this fact and how to use it. Parents will leave with a booklet to support their ongoing conversations with their teens. MADD has separate booklets for middle school parents and for high school parents.

Lisa Howard the Cultured Cook

Thursday, November 14th
6:30 - 8:00pm Woods Gallery

November means Thanksgiving and Thanksgiving means food and football for many Americans. What to serve can also be a question many have. If you are looking for a new way to prepare some sides for your holiday feast, join The Cultured Cook, Lisa Howard, for some healthy and savory ways to use winter vegetables.

Registration is required.

Teddy Bear Sleepover

Saturday, November 16th

3 - 4:30 pm Knox Room

Your best furry friend is invited to a sleepover at the library! Children will bring a stuffed friend to a teddy bear themed storytime, craft, and snack before tucking them in for the night at the library.

Don't worry, you can pick up your stuffed friend the following day, Sunday 1-5pm. Just wait until you hear about their nighttime adventures!

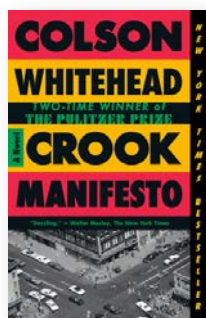

Ideal for ages 3-10.

Registration is required.

HWPL Book Club

Monday, November 25th

7:30pm - 9:00pm

This month's title is Crook Manifesto, by Colson Whitehead. This event is held via Zoom; to get the Zoom link, please email Deb Hemmye at dhemmye@hwoodslib.org.
